Luke tells us that he wanted to provide an orderly account of the life of Jesus that would help people be more certain of the good news of God's salvation. So how do we preach this Gospel as Luke intended? How does Luke organise his material? How does it all fit together? What's this Gospel about? And what are the tools we need to preach it faithfully? David and William will feed and encourage us from God's Word and equip us to be servants of this Word in our ministries.

David Helm:

David Helm serves as the lead pastor of the Hyde Park congregation of Holy Trinity Church in Chicago and as Chairman of the Board of the Charles Simeon Trust, an organization dedicated to the sound preaching of God's Word. He also serves on the council of The Gospel Coalition. For Crossway, he authored 1 & 2 Peter and Jude, The Big Picture Story Bible, and contributed to Preach the Word: Essays on Expository Preaching in Honor of Kent Hughes. He also authored One-to-One Bible Reading for Matthias Media, Daniel for You for The Good Book Co. and the 9Marks volume Expositional Preaching. David is married to Lisa, and they have five children: Noah Helm (married to Julie), Joanna Panner (married to Ben), Baxter, Silas, and Mariah. They also have four grandchildren.

William Taylor:

William Taylor grew up on a farm in Cornwall. He served in the British Army as an Officer in the Royal Green Jackets for five years before being ordained. In 1995 he joined St Helen's Church, Bishopsgate, in the heart of the City of London, and became Rector in 1998. The ministry at St Helen's for many years has a focus on reaching the business community; there are also vibrant Sunday Congregations reaching amongst others, students, young workers, families and internationals. William is married to Janet, and they have three children – Emily, Digby and Archie. He is the author of several books; Understanding the Times, Partnership, The Word One to One and Revolutionary Sex and Revolutionary Work. He was a contributor on the Proclamation Bible. He is also editor of the Read Mark Learn series: John, Romans and Luke (Vol 1 & 2).
